GRACIA TORRES, Amado Antonio

FUFO, Delfin H. - O-353547 - Relative in U.S.

File contains report from another Federal Agency dated January 9, 1961 relating information received from Richard Eder of "The New York Times." Eder telephonically advised a representative of the other Federal Agency on January 7, 1961 that "the New York Times" had received a special delivery letter postmarked New York, N.Y., General Post Office, January 7, 1961, 7:30 P.M.

The letter was purportedly from a member of the Cuban Consulate and informed that the assassination of Delfin H. Fufo had been planned by the Consulate on orders from Havana and that Fidel Castro himself was interested in his death.

Eder advised that Fufo was Secretary-Treasurer of Radio Free Cuba.

A confidential informant advised on January 9, 1961, that one Delfin H. Fufo has offices at 487 Broadway, New York, N.Y. and further stated that Fufo is the former Cuban Ambassador to Canada. He also stated that Fufo has a bad reputation in that it is alleged that he used to carry contraband, including dope, between the United States, Canada and Cuba.

Fufo may or may not be ident to subject's U.S. relative.

ESTRADA PRADO, Enrique - C-242007 - Close Assoc.

Estrada Prado, who is probably ident to subject's close associate, was granted an OA on 5 May 1966. H.D.
